

DEFINED

A Real Man Excels
at God's Work

BETTERMAN

SESSION 1

Godly Work

BETTERMAN

1 Our Work Is from God

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

- Because we are called by God to work, we are responsible to excel in the work He calls us to do.

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

- Because we are called by God to work, we are responsible to excel in the work He calls us to do.
- Because God calls us to work, it matters deeply how we use our God-given time, energy, abilities, and skills. Theologically, the use of our God-given talents is called “Vocational Stewardship.”

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

- Because we are called by God to work, we are responsible to excel in the work He calls us to do.
- Because God calls us to work, it matters deeply how we use our God-given time, energy, abilities, and skills. Theologically, the use of our God-given talents is called “Vocational Stewardship.”

B. God is a worker.

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

- Because we are called by God to work, we are responsible to excel in the work He calls us to do.
- Because God calls us to work, it matters deeply how we use our God-given time, energy, abilities, and skills. Theologically, the use of our God-given talents is called “Vocational Stewardship.”

B. God is a worker.

- From the beginning God has been working.

1

Our Work Is from God

A. We are called by God to work.

- Because we are called by God to work, we are responsible to excel in the work He calls us to do.
- Because God calls us to work, it matters deeply how we use our God-given time, energy, abilities, and skills. Theologically, the use of our God-given talents is called “Vocational Stewardship.”

B. God is a worker.

- From the beginning God has been working.
- God’s work did not cease at creation. Jesus answered them, “My Father is working until now, and I am working.” (John 5:17)

1

Our Work Is from God Continued...

- The Bible describes God in a number of metaphors related to work

1

Our Work Is from God Continued...

- The Bible describes God in a number of metaphors related to work

C. God designed us as workers.

1

Our Work Is from God Continued...

- The Bible describes God in a number of metaphors related to work

C. God designed us as workers.

- We represent God by responsibly ruling over creation.

1

Our Work Is from God Continued...

- The Bible describes God in a number of metaphors related to work

C. God designed us as workers.

- We represent God by responsibly ruling over creation.
- We are given inherent dignity that we carry into all of our work.

2 Culture-Shapers

2 Culture-Shapers

- A. God has given us the task of making and shaping the culture with the work we do...
- B. We never work alone.

2 Culture-Shapers

- A. God has given us the task of making and shaping the culture with the work we do...
- B. We never work alone.
 - All work is gifted and fueled by God who made us and redeemed us for work.

2 Culture-Shapers

- A. God has given us the task of making and shaping the culture with the work we do...
- B. We never work alone.
- All work is gifted and fueled by God who made us and redeemed us for work.
 - God enables us, by His grace, to perform good work on His behalf. We work with God.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.
- Man's fall into sin made our work with creation harder and more frustrating because both the creature and creation are fallen.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.
- Man's fall into sin made our work with creation harder and more frustrating because both the creature and creation are fallen.
- Man's fall opened the door for some work to become evil work.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.
- Man's fall into sin made our work with creation harder and more frustrating because both the creature and creation are fallen.
- Man's fall opened the door for some work to become evil work.

Therefore, some work is:

1. Wasteful and unwise work.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.
- Man's fall into sin made our work with creation harder and more frustrating because both the creature and creation are fallen.
- Man's fall opened the door for some work to become evil work.

Therefore, some work is:

1. Wasteful and unwise work.
2. Dishonest work.

2

Culture-Shapers Continued...

C. Not all work is God's work

- Man's fall into sin had consequences for work. Sin frustrates our work and introduces disorder into God's created order.
- Man's fall into sin made our work with creation harder and more frustrating because both the creature and creation are fallen.
- Man's fall opened the door for some work to become evil work.

Therefore, some work is:

1. Wasteful and unwise work.
2. Dishonest work.
3. Destructive work.

3 Enduring Work

3 Enduring Work

A. We will spend eternity working with people forming a beautiful and holy civilization.

3 Enduring Work

- A. We will spend eternity working with people forming a beautiful and holy civilization.
- B. Our works in this life will contribute to what will be taken into eternity.

3 Enduring Work

- A. We will spend eternity working with people forming a beautiful and holy civilization.
- B. Our works in this life will contribute to what will be taken into eternity.
- That which exalts the glory of God will be taken into eternity, and that which does not will be done away with.

3 Enduring Work

- A. We will spend eternity working with people forming a beautiful and holy civilization.
- B. Our works in this life will contribute to what will be taken into eternity.
- That which exalts the glory of God will be taken into eternity, and that which does not will be done away with.
 - What you do matters so make your work count!

BETTERMAN